

AEROBATIC CONTEST CHECK LIST

Prior to the Contest

Aircraft

- Check Insurance paperwork to ensure aircraft has proper liability coverage and is current
- Check Aircraft will be in annual
- Check that aircraft has functioning radio

Pilot

- Check that your Medical will be current
- Check that your Bi-ennial is current
- Check your aerobatic endorsement
- Check your ASIC Card Expiry Date
- Check that you hold a current appropriate Low Level Waiver for the Category to be flown
- Check that the Judges Home Study Course has been done, marked and a returned pass mark, if required for your Category
- Payment of Entry Fees and Presentation Dinner
- Make hotel and car rental reservations

Items for Contest Director

- Check that your Free forms (A, B, C) are approved and signed.
(This is for Intermediate, Advanced, and Unlimited. Also applies to Sportsman if you have an alternative Free program.)
- Call or email the Contest Director for any special instructions if required

Take to the Contest

Aircraft

- Certificate of Registration.
- Certificate of Airworthiness.
- Maintenance Release.
- Certificate of Insurance showing public liability and property damage in the amount of $5,000,000 single limit minimum.

Pilot

- A current Pilot's Licence.
- A current ASIC Card
- A current Medical Certificate.
- A Bi-ennial Flight Review.
- Aerobatic endorsement per CAO 40.1, the minimum aerobatic endorsements required are loop, barrel roll, slow roll, stall turn, roll off the top and spin (inverted & upright) as appropriate.
- Low Level Permission appropriate to the competition level being flown
- AAC Membership card. & FAI Sporting Licence
- Signed/Certified Free Sequence (if required)
 - 6 x Form A (the judges score sheet)
 - 12 x Form B & 12 x Form C (flow charts showing flight from left to right & right to left)

General

- Sun Screen
- Hat
- Sunglasses